The stomach, the bowels and the liver are responsible for every pain that racks the head. Regulate, tone and harmonize the action of these allied organs with TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT, and you cure the complaint at its source. Sold by all druggists.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Wm. McQueen is down from the north.

Major Hill, manager of the Horn Silver, went to Frisco on Monday.

Mr. J. G. Davis, has returned to the city, the consequence is an improvement in stocks all along the line.

Le Grande Young, Esq., of Williams & Young, was at Silver Reef on Sunday.

Bishop Sharp and two daughters, ex-Mayor Little and Mr. Francis Cope, returned from Omaha last evening.

Ex-Collector O. J. Hollister is on the streets again; it is fair to presume that Crescent will now take another boom.

George Dodge, son of General Manager Dodge, has been appointed Salt Lake agent of the Denver & Rio Grande, vice A. H. Earle.

A. Maloney, train master, sixth division, Denver & Rio Grande, having resigned, J. W. Wood is temporarily installed in the position.

Mr. Edwin Kimball, of Park City goes east to spend Thanksgiving with the folks in New Hampshire; he returns in about six weeks.

Dr. Ira A. E. Lyons, who has been visiting friends in Indianapolis, returned yesterday and will be found hereafter at his office west of the Cliff house.

Chas. Ene Johnson, Esq., manufacturer of the renowned Johnson printing inks, is making a hurried visit to Salt Lake City. He returns east this morning.

Helena has a preacher delivering lectures on Mormonism. Wonder if any of the fellows who do that kind of thing have got away?

Peruvian Bitters.

HORRIBLE CRIME.

An Ogden Negro Rapes a Little Girl.

A crime so fearful in its details as to make the soul sick and the heart sad, occurred in Ogden on Sunday afternoon, being no less than the raping of a little girl by a negro. We take the following particulars from the Herald of yesterday evening:

Two children, a little boy six years old and a little girl only four years old, the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ould, left the house and strolled up the street towards Main. After a little the mother feeling somewhat anxious went in search of them. She found them opposite Morley's barber shop. They were crying and the girl's dress was disarranged, her drawers being loose and trailing down. The excited mother hastily inquired what was the matter, when she was told by the children that a horrible crime had been committed on her child, she had been raped. From her little boy she learned that as they were returning down the street and when opposite the barber shop above named, a black scoundrel of a negro (about 19 years of age) who goes by the name of "Andy," came to the door, called Edie, and offered her five cents to go into the shop. Both children went in, when the dark villain placed the child on the floor between a chair and the wall and accomplished his diabolical deed. As soon as the mother learned the facts she, with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Stevens, called the police officers to arrest the criminal. In the meantime he had fled up stairs and taken refuge in a dark attic room. A light was procured, he was found and dragged from his hiding place. He was taken to the kitchen, where Mrs. Ould saw him with the ferocity of a tigress bereft of her young, and seized him by the throat. She held him with a firm grip for some time, and would have choked the life out of the black rascal, had not some person interfered and released him. Marshal Fife and officer J. M. Brown took him to jail and locked him up. The next time a thing of that kind takes place in Ogden, we would respectfully suggest that it send to Salt Lake for assistance.

The Spanish Students.

The above company, whose appearances in Salt Lake were a financial failure, seem to be doing well elsewhere. The Chieftain, of Evanston, Wyoming, has this to say of them:

The Spanish Students, sixteen in number, armed with guitars, mandolins, violins and bass viol, took Evanston by storm on last Thursday evening, and fairly captivated our music-loving citizens. It was decidedly the finest musical entertainment ever witnessed here. Besides being musicians of the finest quality, they all, without exception, conducted themselves, while in our town, in a manner indicating that they are cultivated gentlemen of the finest and most genuine quality. We would commend them in the highest terms to the towns and cities they may visit in their tour eastward.

New Time Table.

The new time table of the Utah Central goes into effect to-day. The Park City train will leave at 3 p.m. instead of 4 p.m., the train connecting with the Utah & Northern leaves at 7 a.m., making close connection at Ogden with the train going north at 8:30. The eastern mail will reach this city at 6:45 p.m., instead of 7:40. These are the only important changes.

THE hair is frequently rendered prematurely gray by care, grief, delicate health, loss of spirits, or a depressed tone of the vital powers. The use of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer, will restore its youthful color and beauty.

Common Sense Bob Sleds.

Salt Lake Easel.

At the Salt Lake Easel, there is a piece of work which will become the stepping stone to the fame of a Salt Lake boy, or some unforeseen stumbling-block must impede his natural progress.

A crayon drawing of the head of a lion has just been finished by a lad of 15 years, Master Wesley Browning. He has never received any education in the art of drawing, and all that he knows seems to have come by intuition. There are evidences of genius in the handling which can be accounted for in no other way than to say that it was inspiration. The boy is just the kind that makes the artist with a proper training, being of an observant, painstaking, and ambitious turn of mind, aided by that subtle something which only the gifted ever have for companionship.

The drawing is wonderfully free, natural and expressive. It is free from the awkwardness usually attendant upon the efforts of a tyro, and is full of the careless touches and abandon of the true artist.

In looking at it, one can hardly realize that it is the handiwork of an amateur, much less a school-boy.

Mr. Mearns has been requested by a connoisseur to hold the drawing at $100, and to sell only on a higher bid. The gentleman desires to elicit an interest in the talent of the boy, and hopes that those of more liberal means may outbid him, in the interest of a fund to give Wesley an art education.

The Utah Eastern.

A report gained circulation on the street yesterday, to the effect that the Utah Eastern had changed hands and the transfer was duly made. Inquiry at headquarters developed the fact that a short time ago some one whose name "we ain't going to tell," because we couldn't find out) disposed of his stock to men interested in the Union Pacific—or at least those who voted for men interested in that company—at the election of the Eastern yesterday. It may be put down that the Union Pacific now handles the other company, and can caress, cajole or punish the concern as it sees fit; else how could it elect, or have elected, men of its own selection, and who are tolerably certain to act in its interest?

There has been no actual sale and consequently no transfer, unless the proceedings outlined above can be so considered, and to a man up a flight of stairs it looks very much that way.

GEORGE A. MEARS.

He Is Ready.

He was shaky on his pins, and he could not sleep nights. The pangs of rheumatism had twisted his poor old joints out of shape. He had tried everything, so he thought, but a friend whispered try "Britannia." He did, and now he is awaiting an invitation to a dancing party. He says he can "cut a pigeon wing with any on 'em."

Coal Oil Difficulties.

Some little difficulties have arisen the last few days between dealers and peddlers of coal oil in the city. Complaint was entered by one of the dealers in coal oil against certain parties who were peddling oil without a license; and since such licenses are not granted, it was deemed by the complaining party that this was a clear case. Accordingly a hearing was had in the Police court, and yesterday a decision was rendered; the peddlers were fined, and it is thought will be prohibited hereafter from peddling oil. This is a sort of test case. The end in this case, however, has not been reached yet, but the probabilities are that all peddling of oil from tanks will be stopped, and thus "give the dealers a chance," or the alternative will be the granting of such licenses to peddlers. This may make a material difference in the price of coal oil, because considerable cutting in prices has been indulged in by dealers and peddlers.

Rowdy Conduct.

Citizens of that part of the city bordering upon the eastern bench complain loudly of conduct at times of some of the nation's defenders, who are in a hilarious mood, to make night hideous thereabout. If a dance, a social gathering, or any unusual occurrence is going on, and any of the "boys in blue" happen to be around, the very deuce is to pay for a while; and this is not only unpleasant, but may at one time or another be dangerous for somebody. We hope it will be stopped; there are as a general thing nothing but the best of feelings between civilians and soldiers, and this state of affairs ought to be uninterrupted; it will certainly be the fault of the latter when anything of the other kind takes place.

A Mammoth Affair.

The following interesting item is clipped from a Chicago paper; the gentleman referred to is the Mammoth company's agent, Mr. Goodhart, who came out with the proposition to settle the company's debts at 25 cents on the dollar; the lady is of the great McCormick family, and is said to be an heiress to several millions in her own right. "The marriage of Miss Henrietta Laura, daughter of Leander J. McCormick, to Mr. Frederick Goodhart, of Langley Park, Kent, England, will be solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, Wednesday, November 14."

Pleasures and Profits of the Pumpkin.

"A pumpkin that costs 80 cents will make over 100 pies that will sell for 20 cents apiece, or over $20.—Exchange. The average tax-payer should purchase a pumpkin and set it to work making pies at once. As a pumpkin eats nothing, requires no wages, does not get "sassy" and throw up its engagement, has no followers who eat the cold victuals and keep the house open till midnight, we do not see why it should not solve one important side of the servant girl question—that is if it be a fact, that it will, as stated above, "make over 100 pies, etc., etc."—Bridgport Standard.

Utah pumpkins are too fat to work so hard as that, but we have known them to make some people industrious enough for a while.

Who is Dr. Hale?

He is an eminent English physician who has made diseases of the lungs and throat his specialty. To his skill as a pathologist and chemist we owe the wonderful compound known as Hale's Honey of Horse-hound and Tar, the great household remedy for Coughs, Colds, Influenza, etc., with the fame of which the whole country is ringing. Every druggist keeps it, for everybody wants it. C. N. Crittenton, New York, is the proprietor. Prices 50 cents and $1. Money saved by buying large size. Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

On the Wrong Scent.

Editors Herald:

Will you allow me to make a few remarks through your columns. There is a paper published in this city conspicuous for the falsehoods it tells, and also for the scattering of scandal—no matter of what nature. On Friday morning last it published a statement to the effect that one W. G. Newson, of the Eleventh ward, had taken unto himself a polygamous wife. The lady whose name they gave as being one of the contracting parties, I do not know and never heard of before, neither was I married as stated. I called on the Tribune man the same day and told him of his mistake. He attempted to make things right the next morning by saying he was mistaken in the initials—it was W. D. Newson. Now, there is no person by that name—at least in this part of the country—so he is off the track entirely. He probably struck a vein, but like the unskilled miner, did not know how to follow it. On Sunday morning again he gives Newson a deal, which shows conclusively he does not know what he is talking about. The articles published are about as reliable as any that ever appear in the Trib—utterly worthless. If the reporter of that concern was ever on the scent of a scandal, he is now far out at sea, for he has saddled the matter on a man who does not exist. Next.

W. G. NEWSON.

A Question.

Editors Herald:

There is a question pending upon which a certain amount of money is at stake; we have agreed to leave it to your decision. It is: "What is the nationality of a child born in Salt Lake to a Chinese father and an English mother?" Please answer in the HERALD and oblige yours, etc.

S. B. N.

ANSWER.—As the question is stated, there can be but one answer; it may have a more extensive meaning, but we don't care to take it any further than the premises warrant. The child referred to is unquestionably an American citizen.

The Salt Lake Choral Society.

The fourth weekly meeting of this society was held in Careless & Croxall's music rooms, last evening, and Stainer's sacred cantata "The Daughter of Jairus," was practiced with much satisfaction to Professor Careless and the singers, and to the pleasure of those who were listeners. The society has a membership of sixty-five and a number of applications not yet accepted, and there is every reason to believe that the public will soon be afforded one of Professor Careless' best efforts.

It is said that the pay roll of the Northern Pacific for its western terminus to Helena, M. T., amounts to over $400,000 per month. From Helena to St. Paul it is doubtless larger as, including branches, there is much greater mileage, and doubtless the total disbursements of the company to employees, exclusive of New York officers, amount to a million of money.
